Legal Matters

UK / EU Citizenship

Your UK or EU citizenship must be verified by production of a valid passport or birth certificate.

Previously Married?

Your Decree Absolute must be seen by the officiating minister!

Banns of Marriage

What are they?

A declaration of your intention to marry read during public worship.

Banns of Marriage

When are they read?

On three (normally consecutive) Sundays before the wedding during the main worship service.

Banns of Marriage

Once read and no legal objections have been cited, they are valid for three months.

Banns of Marriage

Where are they read?

- a) The church where you will marry
- b) The groom's parish church
- c) The bride's parish church

One or more of these may be the same place!

Banns of Marriage

We will automatically read your Banns at either St. Mark's

IMPORTANT

Banns of Marriage

If either of you are living in a parish other than that belonging to the church where you are marrying, you must apply to have your Banns read at your own parish church!

We require a Banns Certificate (costing £37.00) issued by its minister.

Banns of Marriage

We normally start publishing Banns on the first Sunday of the month which maximises their validity.

For Example: Marriage in July Banns start in May

Changes of Address

If you move house, please let us Know.

It will have legal implications!

Witnesses

You will need to nominate two witnesses who must be...

- a) At least 18 years of age
- b) UK Citizens
- c) Present the entire service

Practical Matters

Handout

The Service (word-for-word).

Music

It is possible to play music from CDs or USBs during the service, but we need to check them at the rehearsal.

Orders of Service

An example is in the centre of the booklet these can be produced by us. However, if you wish to do your own then please send a copy to Julie at least a month before the wedding so it can be thoroughly checked before final print.
